621 Series T1 Apparatus Case Repeater Housings Manufacture Discontinued (MD) Notification

PRODUCTS AFFECTED:

This notice impacts all 621 Series T1 Apparatus Case Repeater Housings (12, 25 and 50 slot) for use with T1 miniature line repeaters and related accessories.

BACKGROUND:

Due to multiple factors, including declining market usage and demand, competing technologies, and limited component supply sources, Charles has elected to immediately commence manufacture discontinue (MD) actions for all 621 Series T1 Apparatus Case Repeater Housings. Charles regrets having to take such immediate action, however our Supply Chain Management team has exhausted all possible options in an effort to continue to offer these products. Charles will continue to offer the 93-AC1000C, single slot apparatus case; 91-0CISA4-B Surge Arrestor; and 600036-700-001 Lightning Protection Kit.

MANUFACTURE DISCONTINUED (MD):

Appendix A, page 2, of this notification lists all 621 Series Apparatus Case Repeater Housing products which will be manufacture discontinued (MD).

EFFECTIVE DATES:

Today, September 15, 2016, Charles commenced manufacture discontinue (MD) actions for all 621 Series Apparatus Case Repeater Housings listed in Appendix A. Effective November 17, 2016, Charles will have formally manufacture discontinued the products listed in this notification. Prior to this date, available products may be purchased in accordance with our standard ordering procedures. Orders will be filled while supplies last. However, due to limited component availability, products may not be available prior to the effective date. It is strongly recommended that all customers check with our inside sales representatives to determine product availability of manufacture discontinued products.

SUPPORT:

Technical support and repair services for Manufacture Discontinued will continue to be provided beyond the MD date for products under warranty.

NOTIFICATIONS:

A communications package will be sent via e-mail to distribution partners and direct customers on September 15, 2017. Contracted Customers will be treated in accordance with the terms set forth in their respective Agreements. All recipients of this notification are requested to return an enclosed 'NOTIFICATION OF RECEIPT'.

ORDERING/INFORMATION:

To place orders or should you have any questions regarding this bulletin, please contact your Charles Inside Sales Representative directly, or phone 847-258-8526.
